SUMMER MUSEUM LECTURE SERIES

Seymour Slive, professor of fine arts at Harvard University, will give four lectures on REALISM AND SYMBOLISM IN 17TH-CENTURY DUTCH PAINTING at The Cleveland Museum of Art, beginning Sunday afternoon June 25 at 3:30. The Sunday lecture will provide background information for the following three which will discuss:

FRANS HALS - Tuesday, June 27, 2:00 p.m.

REMBRANDT - Wednesday, June 28, 8:30 p.m.

VERMEER - Thursday, June 29, 2:00 p.m.

Professor Slive has devoted his art historical career particularly to the study of Rembrandt and Hals. He has published eleven books, six of them dealing with these two artists, the others dealing with various aspects of Dutch and Flemish art. He has two more books in preparation.

Professor Slive earned his doctorate from the University of Chicago; he has an honorary degree from Harvard. He studied in the Netherlands under a Fulbright Fellowship and was also a Fulbright Research Scholar at the University of Utrecht.
